

*The Buck Institute Acorn Society
Invites you to become an Acorn Ambassador*

As a member of the Acorn Society you have made a commitment to helping Buck Institute scientists unlock the mysteries of aging and its associated diseases. We encourage you to further that commitment by spreading the word about the vital work being done here at the Buck that will benefit all humankind.

Tell your friends, family, neighbors and business associates about the Institute and help our Acorn membership grow.

Acorn Ambassador levels:

Pewter: When you bring in a new Acorn member, you become an Acorn Ambassador. In recognition, you will receive an Acorn Ambassador certificate as well as free admission to Community Seminars held at the Buck Institute.

Bronze: Bring in 3 new Acorn members and in addition to the above we will be happy to host you and 5 guests for a private docent lead tour of the Buck followed by refreshments in the Atrium.

Silver: Bring 5 new Acorn members to the Institute and in addition to the above, be highlighted in an article in the Institute's newsletter.

Gold: The Acorn Ambassador who brings 10 new Acorn members will in addition to the above, be invited to join the Buck Institute's Chief Operating Officer for lunch and discussion on the future of the Institute.
